DISCLAIMS KNOWLEDGE

C. Raoul, of Owls Club, Is Fined $200 and Held Under Bond on Charge of Selling Whisky

W. C. Jones, the missing "stool pigeon" employed by city detectives to lead in the investigation of locker clubs in Atlanta, and who returned Tuesday after an absence of several months, created a sensation in recorder's court yesterday when he declared he had been paid $500 for signing a certain paper and that he had been supplied with funds during his absence by persons connected with various clubs among which he had been active.

The statement was evoked by a question asked by the city attorney, C. L. Anderson, in the trial of C. Raoul, manager of the Owls club, who was on trial for violation of the law against keeping whisky in a house for sale purposes.

Jones said he left Atlanta because "other parties" were influencing him, and that he had been paid $500 in cash and that he had been supplied with funds for signing a certain paper, and that from time to time he had been supplied with other money while traveling around to various cities.

He stated that the $500 was paid to him by "other parties" and that he had been supplied with funds for signing a certain paper, and that from time to time he had been supplied with other money while traveling around to various cities.

When given by a reporter, Jones' statement in reply to Jones' charge: "I was employed by clients who had received a letter from W. C. Jones, who had been supplied with funds in need of money and in destitute circumstances, he had led in order to promote the interests of the Anti-Saloon league, and that statements he had made in regard to buying whisky from the locker club were untrue."

I went to Smyrna for the sole purpose of verifying the fact that he was the author of the same. The city attorney, C. L. Anderson, of the Owls club, and the city public witness was the cashier of the Antislavery league.

WILSON'S FIRST SALUTE FLAG

Unless Order Is Obeyed, President Will Ask Congress Monday for Authority to Take Any Action Necessary—Secretary Daniels Discusses With His Aides Proposed Movements of Naval Craft in Case of War

UNLESS HUERTA ACCEPTS DEMANDS IMMEDIATELY, VERA CRUZ AND TAMPIOCO WILL BE SEIZED BY U. S.

Will Not Wait on Arrival of Fleet in Mexican Waters to Seize Cities—Entire Congress Prepares to Back Mr. Wilson in Move—Final Notice Flashing to Huerta After Cabinet Meeting—Salute Without Qualification Ordered

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Huerta will salute the American flag at Tampico before 6 p. m. Sunday or President Wilson will go before Congress to ask authority to take such measures as may be necessary.

This statement was issued at the White House.

"General Huerta is still insisting on doing something less than has been demanded and something less than would constitute an acknowledgment that his representatives were entitled to bring along in the indignities which have been put on the government of the United States."

The president has determined that if General Huerta has not yielded by 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon he will order the military government of Huerta to be seized by force.

Secretary Bryan explained that President Wilson's statement meant Huerta would be obliged to guarantee the salute without qualification by 6 p. m. Sunday and that physical obstacles must defer its being actually fired by that hour.

Huerta has reiterated his counter proposition for a simultaneous salute. President Wilson has informed him that the United States stands on the original demand of Rear Admiral Mayo that he must accept immediately.

TO SEIZE RAILWAY.

Secretary Bryan prepared President Wilson's answer which was immediately sent to Mexico City. It set forth that unless Huerta accepted the American demand immediately, the plan of seizure of Tampico and Vera Cruz will be carried out.

The plan for seizing Vera Cruz and Tampico includes the seizure of the railway from Vera Cruz to Mexico City for as a transit route to the west of Vera Cruz.

Mr. Bryan said that the final message was in transmission to Mexico City and that the military government of Huerta was being set up in the city.

There were no orders to the troops at Tampico.

White House officials announced that Huerta would salute the American flag at Tampico before 6 p. m. Sunday or President Wilson will go before Congress to ask authority to take such measures as may be necessary.

ALLEGED YEGGS FREED BUT LIBERTY'S SHORT

Three Accused of Safe Cracking, Released by Federal Judge, Are Re-arrested

A. O. Perry, Rexford B. Fields and W. R. O'Connell, the alleged "Yeggs," arrested at St. Paul, Minn., by Assistant U. S. Attorney General George C. Bullard and Plain Clothes Officer T. S. Shaw, who found a complete safe-blowing outfit in the house, were Saturday at noon given a "clean bill of health" by United States Commissioner W. Colquhoun Carter.

This sudden turn in the case came as a mid-session surprise to those who were present at the commitment trial and proved such a great surprise to the Federal grand jury, two deputy sheriffs from St. Paul, who immediately stepped forward with a state warrant charging them with the blowing of a safe in the city.

The prisoners were then returned to the St. Paul county jail to await the decision of the sheriff of the county where they were arrested.

The government case against Perry, O'Connell and Fields grew out of a positive identification of the former by J. A. Merrill, a postal clerk on the Queen and Crescent route, who declared he was one of the gang of yeggs who robbed the mail car of $40,000 in currency in February. At the same time Merrill identified the other two men held here.

The prisoners, free for less than a month, were then re-arrested. They asked to see the warrant for their arrest and offered no resistance to being taken. Mrs. Fields was the only one who made no statement to the sudden turn in affairs. She blamed her husband, good-bye as he was led back to the tower.

Two Big Rounds Won for Vandy Over the Jackets

Commodores Piled Up 4 Runs in the Sixth and 7 in the Eighth-Pound, for Tech, Had Great Day at Bat-Visitors Made Three Double Plays

Hitting the pill opportunity in the sixth and eighth innings, Vanderbilt romped home six runs over Tech yesterday in the first game of the series, 11 to 2. Eleven hits were made by both teams, and the only difference in them was that Vandy's came when they meant score, while Tech's succeeded in keeping the Jackets' hits far apart.

Pound was the littlest star of the game, getting four safe walks out of four attempts. One went for three, one for two and one for one for each. All of his hits were of clean variety and two of them scored runs.

Edison also got a nice pinch hit in the sixth, hitting the ball over E. Montague's head in center for a triple, counting three runs.

Over, in left field, had a good day with the stick, getting two safe runs out of four trips to the pan.

Two of the catches were made during the game. Five bobbles were credited to Tech, four of which resulted seriously for the Jackets.

T. Montague had an unusual experience. The eighth inning, two men were on the sacks and one out, when H. Turner hit a box grounder toward Tyler. In some manner, as he was running to field it, his foot hit and kicked it about thirty feet into the field, Vandy getting two runs on the hit.

Edison fanned six men during the seven innings that he performed in the box, and allowed two men to go free. The same number, Carothers, twirled the whole game for Vandy, and pitched a nice ball throughout, always lighting when Jackel men were on the bases. Five men fell victims to his benders during the pastime, while four drew free bases.

Only one bobbie was made by Vandy and that came in the second inning, Morgan throwing wild to Tech trying to catch Pound, who scored after the wild ball.

Three double plays were pulled by Vandy during the game, Morgan and Carothers being the men who made them. Evers had a good day in the field, making two nice catches and assisting in making one of the same kind by Vandy.

Only one game will be played in the afternoon, instead of two, as announced by the Commodore.

THE SPOTLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

APRIL PLUS OCTOBER. "Mack's club always gets away slowly in the spring."—Exchange. In the spring E. Collins sure was a wonder. In the spring F. Baker fans. In the spring C. Bender's beaten. Steadily by minor clans.

In the spring the Mackmen stumble. Losing all their skill and science. Do they look as bad in autumn? Do they look as bad in autumn?

"KEEPING HIS EYE ON THE BALL." Having heard that Mr. Mack had developed into an ardent golfer, we invited him to a friendly bout at nibbles upon any opportune date.

"I'll be very glad," remarked Collins, "to take you on—any day after October 15. In the meanwhile I will stay in good practice by keeping my eye on the ball—but it will be a baseball."

At that it must be a terrible strain upon one's eyesight to keep an eye on some of the balls that Baker catches in the groove. The Athletic leader must carry a L. telescope around.

A COLLECTION. We make no pretense of being infallible, but, for all that, we are always glad to correct any mistakes that may creep into these dispatches. It seems now that we were guilty of a grievous error. Five weeks ago we called the greatest score of Washington vs. Boston with Johnson facing Collins at 1 to 0. Bum guess. It was 3 to 0. We apologize.

After the first day in Philadelphia the Giants are said to be highly incensed at the way the Feds disrupted the Phillies. Mr. Marquard is also thinking of waying the Feds for damages for having overlooked Shorrock. A number of eminent attorneys have stated that he has an open and shut case—if you know what sort of a case that is.

The Feds have not only started, contrary to midwinter report, but they have started briskly, playing good ball before first-class crowds.

According to the Pittsburgh Post, Tom Seaton joined the Brooklyn Feds after all. They claim that the rumor is more than well founded.

There is a vast difference between the looks of Mack's hit club in the spring and the looks of the same club in the fall. Mack's hit club for a club owner and 60 per cent of $150,000. Briefly, about $50,000 difference and an average of about 11 base hits per game.

Rival ball clubs that have been feeding upon the soft, yielding quib of the Yankees for three or four seasons are liable to absorb quite a bump this season and a touch of indignation. Chance hasn't developed any permanent center yet, but he has the most improved machine in either city. It might be whispered that there was more room for improvement, but it isn't every leader who always makes good use of the room.

Chance has undoubtedly started back to where he belongs, which is somewhere around the crest. When he started he had had nothing to build around. Now he has four or five brick youngsters who are sure to stick and to hold on at top speed. Give him another year and the old handle of P. L. will be called back into play.

Preps Organize Scribes Tourney 'Federal' League Nearing Close

Another "Federal" league has been organized and this time it is right in the midst. Three teams of the local prep league, not exactly taking a certain ruling made by the governing board of the prep league, decided to withdraw, and have now dubbed themselves the "Prep Federal League."

At an recent meeting of the governing board of the prep league, which board is composed of one member from each school, a rule was passed that no player that had not entered school before February 1, would be allowed to participate in the athletics of that school, a rule somewhat like the one-year rule of the S. A. A. Four of the teams in the league voted for this, while the rest of the teams voted against it.

The "Feds" propose to play games among themselves and with out-of-town prep teams.

Just what final action will be taken is not known, as each side has pointed out that they are right and will not come across to the other.

QUESTION

Macon, Ga.
It seems to me I have heard you say, "you will not be looking for the impression in some way, that you know of some one who would keep ticks off of cattle. I have seen some ticks on some of the ticks on them, and am staying awake at night with fear of their getting loose. If you can help me in any in this I will be glad to pay you for it."

ANSWER
The only way to keep ticks off of cattle is not to allow the cattle to come in contact with tick-infested pastures. Often after the water ticks will be left standing in pastures that overflow, the ticks or seed being washed down in miles above. This is one way they can get in a pasture, and the other way is by being brought there by cattle or some other animal. If you haven't any ticks in
